SHARE PRIZE 2016
Competition Notice

Section 1 Scope

The Piemonte Share Festival announces the tenth edition of the Share Prize for digital art. The competition jury will award a prize of Eur 2,500.00* to the work (published or unpublished) which best represents experimentation between arts and new technologies. The candidates for the prize (a short list of 6 competitors) will be guests at the twelfth edition of the Share Festival, taking place in Turin in the end May 2017. The six nominations of candidates for the prize will be announced at the beginning of April 2017. The announcement will be published on the following website: www.toshare.it
The winner will be announced during the opening of the festival.

Section 2 Purpose

The aim of Share Prize is to discover, promote and support contemporary art in the digital age.

Piemonte Share Festival, the Italian art fair of electronics, digital art and new media, announces the theme for its 10th consecutive Share Prize:

"Sincerity"

This twelfth edition of the festival will be led by artistic director Bruce Sterling, American author, journalist, editor and critic.

Our electronic network society has many virtues, but opacity, deceit and obscurantism are among its vices. For 2017, Share Festival raises its lantern of Diogenes to search for technical artworks that are honest.

How can a work be technically accomplished, yet also lucid, clear and trustworthy?

How can art works gracefully remove the smoke-and-mirrors of mystification and make an art of explaining themselves?

How can technology art treat the audience with justice, fairness and respect for their civilized intelligence?

Who has the emotional courage to privilege the heartfelt confession over the domination of digital craft?

*two thousand, five hundred euros, including tax and social security withholdings.

(The prize will be paid once suitable documentation is presented. Taxes will be applied in compliance with the tax laws of the winner's country of domicile and on the basis of the tax regime elected by the artist, taking into consideration the taxation system applicable to our organisation in Italy. Further information will be sent to the short-listed finalists at the end of April.)

Section 3 Terms and Conditions of Entry

The competition is dedicated to artists that use contemporary digital society, in all its shapes and forms, and in combination with analogue technologies and other materials, as a language for creative expression. The competition is open to both Italian and foreign artists. Each artist, or artist collective, can enter a maximum of three works. Artists that are part of collectives may choose to enter the competition individually, with a maximum of three works.

To enter the competition, works must be registered on the website www.toshare.it using the entry form provided. Competition entry forms and artwork descriptions will be accepted in either Italian or English, though English is preferred.

Section 4 Eligibility

- Members of the Jury and members of the organising committee
- The employees and contractors of the jury members and of the organising body will not be eligible to take part in the competition.
- Unproduced projects or works will not be accepted.

Section 5 Deadlines

- To enter the competition, works must be registered on the website www.toshare.it using the entry form provided.
- To participate in the competition the application form must be received no later than 12th March, 2017 - 24:00. Late entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted for any reason.

Section 6 Documentation Required to Participate in the Competition

To participate, entrants should complete the on-line entry form on the website www.toshare.it

The following information is required on all entry forms:

- Title of the work;
- Brief description of the work (max. 100 words);
- Résumé of the artist or the artist collective (in the case of newly-formed collectives, the résumé of each member of the collective should be provided);
- URL of the website where further information can be found about the work.
- No additional material (hard copy, DVDs, CDs, etc.) should be sent, beyond the specific competition requirements.

Each competition entrant will be required to expand on the information provided in the entry form in a dedicated website. The website should contain:

- A description of the work (max. 500 words) explaining the central concept and technology used;
- Images (.jpg), video (.avi/mpeg4/h.264) or audio files (.mp3) of the work;
- Résumé of the artist or the artist collective (in the case of newly-formed collectives, the résumé of each member of the collective should be provided).

N.B. Entrants are responsible for the design, creation and all costs connected with the website required to participate in the competition.

Section 7 Jury

An international jury will review the works and projects entered in the competition and nominate a shortlist of finalists for the prize (maximum of six nominees).

The finalists will be invited to participate in the 12th edition of Piemonte Share Festival, to be held in Torino in the end of May 2017.

The six finalists for the prize will be announced at the beginning of April 2017.

The short list will be published on the website www.toshare.it

The winner will be announced during the festival.
